

STUDY GUIDE

January 26-27, 2019

Series Overview: Jesus didn't come to this planet to enhance an old religion. He didn't come just to make bold proclamations and offer wise teachings. From the moment an angel told Mary she would give birth to a Son whose 'Kingdom would not end,' it was clear: Jesus came to introduce something new, not to extend something old. He came to replace something that had been in place since the time of Moses, and our world hasn't been the same since.

Watch	Introduction
"Gone Fishing" The sermon is up on the spac.ca website Monday of each week.	What does it look like when Jesus calls? Sometimes we think about it only in terms of the most significant moments in our lives. But what if the call started with something small, something simple, something doable? What if it was there that Jesus met us? Peter's story in Luke 5 plays this out for us. What seems like a weird request from Jesus was actually the turning point of Peters whole life, and he didn't even know it. He had no idea what hung in the balance of the decision to take Jesus at His word. Neither do we.

Engage
Scripture: Luke 5:1-11, Matthew 4:18-22 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• If you could summarize the sermon in one minute, what would you say?</li> <li>• Read Matthew 4:18-22. How does that description of the disciple's call make you feel compared to that in Luke 5:1-11?</li> <li>• Is there one small step of obedience that you feel God has been asking you to take? Why haven't you taken it yet?</li> <li>• Ask Jesus to make clear for you a next step you could take this week.</li> <li>• What are some ways that God could use your skills, experience, education or interests to advance His kingdom?</li> </ul> Jesus always makes the first move, before He asks the first disciples for something significant, He asks for something simple. Jesus takes their simple step of obedience and does something remarkable with it. In doing so, the fishermen recognize Jesus is worth giving everything up for.
